L-28) IN THE STEPS OF THE MASTER: JUSTIN "SQUIGS" ROBERTSON

His delightful caricatures depicting the stars, shows, creative artists and gypsies who make up the Broadway community of the 21st century are as whimsical and as theatrical as the subjects they portray. Broadway Cares is thrilled to have been able to use Squigs' creations for the 2010 GYPSY OF THE YEAR poster as well as the 2011 EASTER BONNET COMPETITION and BROADWAY FLEA MARKET & GRAND AUCTION posters. Now you can take home one of these wonderful original drawings of some of Broadway's most popular shows.

A) SPIDER-MAN: TURN OFF THE DARK

See your friendly neighborhood Spider-Man face the Green Goblin. Squigs depicts the web slinger as both Spidey fighting crime and his alter ego, Peter Parker, trying to win over Mary Jane. Featured in this drawing are Reeve Carney as Peter and Spider-Man, Patrick Page as Norman Osborn and the Green Goblin, Jennifer Damiano as Mary Jane Watson and T.V. Carpio as Arachne watching over our hero. Also featured are the characters of J. Jonah Jameson, Aunt May, Uncle Ben and Emily Osborn.

B) FOLLIES

Hats off! Here they come, those Beautiful Girls! Squigs brings us all the glamour of Weissman's Follies as Bernadette Peters, Jan Maxwell, Danny Burstein and Ron Raines shine in this original caricature. The colorful sketch also features all those lovely ladies of the Follies on parade as well as our four leading players as the memories of their younger selves.

C) HOW TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS WITHOUT REALLY TRYING

Learn how to make it to the top with the master himself, J. Pierpont Finch, in this dazzling drawing of How to Succeed. Finch (Daniel Radcliffe), J.B. Biggley (John Larroquette), Rosemary (Rose Hemingway), Bud Frump (Christopher J. Hanke) and Hedy La Rue (Tammy Blanchard) strut their stuff in Squigs' caricature of the Frank Loesser classic musical with the incredibly long title. Finch can teach you how to rise from the mailroom but only if you bid high enough to take him home.

D) THE BOOK OF MORMON

Squigs has recreated the cast of this Tony Award-winning musical by the creators of South Park, Trey Parker and Matt Stone. Leading actors Andrew Rannells, Josh Gad, Rory O'Malley and Nikki M. James appear in this bright and colorful drawing. As an added bonus, the winner of this exciting auction item will receive two tickets to a performance of the show. THE BOOK OF MORMON is the toughest ticket to get on Broadway so don't miss this chance to see it live.

L-47) SIGNED PORTRAIT OF ELIZABETH TAYLOR IN HER DRESSING ROOM AT THE LITTLE FOXES

Elizabeth Taylor made only two appearances on Broadway, including the 1981 production of THE LITTLE FOXES at the Martin Beck Theatre (now the Hirschfeld Theatre). This rare backstage moment was captured shortly before curtain by renowned New York photographer Rivka Katvan in Ms. Taylor's dressing room – indeed painted a lovely shade of violet. Measuring 27”x21” this gorgeous black and white photograph was generously autographed by Ms. Taylor just last year as a special favor for BC/EFA.

On March 23, 2011, Elizabeth Taylor passed away and the world lost its most outspoken champion for people living with HIV/AIDS. Ms. Taylor became the courageous voice for millions by working tirelessly for nearly 30 years on behalf of those who could not. From the earliest days of AIDS, Ms. Taylor bravely embraced its victims, a time when many feared an unknown disease and many more with the power to help refused to do so. She did not see personal or professional danger; she saw only that she was needed. Her dedication and devotion to help others created a wave of compassion against a rising tide of prejudice that is still felt the world over.

Elizabeth Taylor will be remembered as not only a great actress and the quintessential movie star but also as a loving friend and extraordinary woman. She will be missed.

Courtesy of Rivka Katvan and Dale Olson with much love sent to BC/EFA Trustee Kate Burton and, of course, Elizabeth Taylor
